

EDA

ERDEM

DÜNDAR

Eda Erdem DüNDAR is a Turkish professional volleyball player.

Captain of the Turkish national volleyball team, had her name written in gold letters as one of the best middle blockers thanks to her success in many matches including the 2021 CEV Women's European Volleyball Championship.

Eda Erdem is known for her resistant and emotional playing style with surprising blocks against the world's best spikers and corner spikes against the cruelest blockers.

The living legend of Turkish volleyball was born on June 22, 1987, in Istanbul. She began playing volleyball in 2000 in Beşiktaş's junior team. And at the age of 16 she earned her place in Beşiktaş's senior women's

In 2008, Eda Erdem left Beşiktaş for Fenerbahçe SK, where she contributed to the club's first-ever national title in her first season.

Individually, she was awarded the title of best middle blocker while playing for Beşiktaş. But the 2008-2009 title was her first team win, the first of many.

In Doha, Qatar, Eda won the 2010 FIVB World Club Championship, playing with Fenerbahçe and earned the Best Server award.

Eda Erdem also won the Best Server award and the silver medal with her national team at the 2011 European League.

She played with Fenerbahçe in the 2012 FIVB Club World Championship held in Doha and helped her team to win the bronze medal after defeating Puerto Rico's Lancheras de Cataño 3–0.

She currently plays for both Fenerbahçe SK and the national team and is the captain of both teams. She has played more than 300 games for the Turkish national team.

Eda Erdem has also received a Most Valuable Player (MVP) title in the Turkish league and numerous other titles and awards at the international level
